Anthony's Crucible

Here is a timeline of Anthony of Boston's mission, which coalesces into a new religious zeitgeist that anyone can join:

Early Life and Background:

- Anthony of Boston was born in New Orleans, Louisiana. He started as a collector of action figures symbolizing heroic masculinity and developed a strong interest in sports as a claim to strength and esteem.
- Despite efforts, he failed to become a champion athlete, facing exclusion from basketball teams and college football tryouts.
- He was raised in a Catholic faith by a father who was a former seminarian.
- Personal tragedy struck when his sister was murdered by a serial killer, leading him to question the nature of God and human behavior.
- After being displaced by Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Anthony fell into poverty and homelessness in Boston.
- During this difficult period, he developed an interest in astrology and human behavior, eventually connecting the planet Mars to negative and aggressive behaviors.
- He discovered the work of Michel Gauquelin, who researched the "Mars effect" among champion athletes, which resonated with Anthony's own struggles and research.

Development of the Mars 360 and 666 Concept

https://archive.org/details/areslemandat_20191110:

- Anthony intuitively hypothesized that the planet Mars was linked to the biblical 666, the "number of the beast," using Sumerian English gematria (Mars = 306 + 66 = 666).
- He wrote the extensive theological and prophetic work "Ares Le Mandat," which explains the influence of Mars (Mars 360) as the Antichrist figure in Christian and Islamic eschatology.
- This work connects the "Mandates"—military, economic, health, gender, meteorological, and data systems—as branches of the demonic architecture.
- Anthony argued that Mars 360 triggers major world events like economic collapses and wars and decoded the "Mark of the Beast" as a cosmic and spiritual imprint linked to Mars.
- Anthony of Boston developed the social system rooted in his theological and astrological interpretation of Mars 360 as the biblical 666, the "number of the beast." This system, often referred to as the Mars 360 system, categorizes individuals based on the position of Mars in their natal astrology chart, dividing humanity into six archetypes corresponding to six sectors of 30 degrees each. Anthony proposed that these archetypes reflect specific negative dispositions influenced by Mars, which affect human behavior and social roles. He suggested that this system could be institutionalized socially and religiously by marking individuals with their Mars position—either on the right hand or forehead—symbolizing the "Mark of the Beast." This mark would function as a social and economic identifier, regulating commerce and legal clemency, where no one could buy or sell without it. The Mars 360 system is framed as a means to manage and mitigate Mars' negative influence by recognizing and categorizing human dispositions, thereby promoting social order and peace through understanding

Public Mission and Predictions (2019–2025)

<https://www.youtube.com/@anthonym1690>:

- November 2019: Anthony publicly revealed the "revelation of the lawless one" & Mars 360, presenting his calculations and linking Mars with 666 in a video and document. He connected this with the post-Vatican II apostasy and geopolitical conflicts, such as the Israel-Palestine situation.
- November 18, 2019: He made the first prediction correlating rocket attacks from Gaza to Israel with Mars being within 30 degrees of the lunar node, forecasting escalation between January 15 and April 3, 2020. This marked the beginning of "invocation of fire from heaven" mission.
- Early 2020 to 2024: Anthony made consistent yearly predictions of rocket fire escalations tied to Mars/nodal alignments:
 - January–April 2020: Prediction of increased rocket attacks from Gaza, which occurred as forecasted.
 - February–May 2021: Further escalation predicted, coinciding with the Gaza war.
 - June–September 2022: Escalation again coincided with the predicted timeframe
- August–November 2023: A major escalation occurred with over 9,500 rockets launched, matching Anthony's forecast. He declared himself a prophet of Satan linking Mars with Satan and the 666 mark, calling for the creation of an image called Armaaruss to mitigate Mars' influence.
- November 2023: He reinforced his prediction for a peak in rocket attacks between April and June 2024 and detailed his pact with Satan granting him prophetic power.
- 2024–2025: Continued warnings that without the creation of the Armaaruss image and adoption of the Mars 360 system, rocket attacks and violence would increase with the highest concentration expected between June and September 2025.

- June-September 2025: Escalation increased significantly with the 12 day Israel-Iran war commencing on June 12th, which led to Iranian missile attacks on Tel Aviv, Haifa and other cities during this period
- Throughout these years, Anthony repeatedly urged Israel and surrounding people to recognize Mars' influence and implement his system Mars 360 as a social and religious solution to achieve peace.
- In August of 2025, an image of Armaaruss was finally created by a witness to Anthony's predictions—Jessica Mars.
